SILVER ANNIVERSARY CAMP SEASON A GREAT ONE!

In the next couple of Chronicles, we hope to highlight some of the stats from the great 1995 camp season. On the back page is our annual camp report to our churches and below is a financial overview of the money taken in and spent. Because we broke even again this year we will most likely not raise fees for next year, It will still only cost $40 for a week of camp if you pre-register. However, we may charge and extra $1 if you don't mark your children's clothing. In the October Chronicle we will highlight all the churches who sent the 474 campers this summer. In 1994 we had only 399 campers -- so I think you all can see just how much we were up in all categories this summer.

We experienced only 3 problems the whole camp season and these have been reported to the General Board and Executive Committee. By reviewing these problems, we can insure they won't happen again and improve an already great camp.

CAMP LOSES FAITHFUL T-CLUB SUPPORTER

We extend out sympathy to the Rudolph Conley family from the Hollybrook Church of Christ. Rudolph was a member of our T-Club program here at C/A for many years. His family continues to support the camp through many means.

HAM SUPPER IS SEPTEMBER 9TH

Our annual fall C/A Ham Supper is September 9th with music at 5:30 followed by the meal at 6:30. PLEASE TAKE A COUNT IN YOUR MORNING WORSHIP SERVICE ON OR BEFORE SEPTEMBER 3 AND CALL IN THE NUMBER COMING FROM YOUR CONGREGATION! This is the only way we know how much food to order.

PRIORITY LIST OF IMPROVEMENTS FOR 1996

The November General Board will vote on a priority list of improvements for 1996 to the C/A campus. Already on the list for 1996 are the campfire pavilion, new parking area for the chapel, remodeling ceiling and electric in dorms. Let me know before November of your suggestions. We'll include them on the list to be voted upon the later part of November.

REMAINING IMPROVEMENTS FOR THE CAMPUS IN 1995

- -- air conditioning for the kitchen
- -- repair carpets mini-golf
- -- seal basketball court
- -- install water fountain at ballfield

CAMPUS AVAILABLE FOR RETREATS, ETC.

Both our boys and girls dorms are available for use by our supporting churches for such events as overnight or one day retreats, etc. Call me for a reservation.

The former C/A children's home has been completely renovated by BCE as a male dormitory for 1995 freeing up our dorms for such usage. I know the college wouldn't mind you dropping by to see the near $7000 worth of improvements made to the old children's home.

PREACHER'S MEETING TO RESTART IN SEPT.

Now that the camp season is over, we are ready to restart our monthly preacher's meeting at Ponderosa Steak House at 11:00 a.m. on Monday, Sept. 11th. Our meetings, preachers, are always the second Monday of the month. Come enjoy this time of fellowship.

GOODWYN'S CHAPEL LATEST VBS HELPER

Our hats off to the staff and children of the Goodwyn's Chapel VBS program. They mailed in a $100 gift to help out the camp.

MORE SCHOLARSHIP HELP

Our total camp scholarship help this summer was $1223.23, almost double what we had to use. We transferred out $660 to cover the campers who needed assistance this summer. Our thanks to our latest helpers, M/M Finley Carroll, from Mudfork, who mailed in $200 for this program.
